Redding Rancheria Tribal Government Hosts the 2008 California Indian Legal Services Tribal Courts Conference

Redding, CA (May 1, 2008) – Redding Rancheria Tribal Government will host the 2008 California Indian Legal Services Tribal Courts conference May 8 – May 9, 2008 at the Redding Rancheria Community Center located behind Win-River Casino. This is a two-day state-wide conference that will feature a host of panel discussions on topics relevant to tribal courts, tribal leaders, and the tribal community. Featured presenters will include tribal court judges and representatives from tribal courts in California, as well as experts from across the state to present information about gaining community support for tribal courts, creating judicial independence, preparing rules of ethics for tribal court judges and much more. Panels are to include a welcome from Redding Rancheria's Chairperson, Barbara Murphy and CEO Tracy Edwards.

"The Redding Rancheria is excited to host the upcoming Tribal Court Conference. This is an excellent opportunity for us to come together with other tribal community leaders to discuss relevant issues regarding tribal courts," said Tracy Edwards, Redding Rancheria CEO.

Redding Rancheria is a sovereign nation where pride in Tribal culture, history and identity is evident internally and in the larger community. Redding Rancheria is a leader in the constructive development of its people, the larger Indian community and the Redding region.
